PREFACE.

This constitutes the seventh volume in the series of Melrose Directories which we have published. We believe the list of residents will be found as accurate as can be expected considering the changes which are taking place all the time. We have spread out our street list giving it more space. This list does not include every name, only heads of families.

It makes our work doubly difficult to compile this duplicate list, but there are many who use it constantly and would miss it if left out.

The book shows many changes since our last issue. In 1904 there were 6300 names. We have marked out 1500 names (about 25 per cent.) and added 1900 new names. There were many changes of residences besides. This shows the need of a new directory.

Our advertisers are among the leading and enterprising men of Melrose and adjoining cities. We hope their ads will be read by the many users of the book and that they will receive a return for their outlay.

We thank all who have aided us in any way while gathering matter for the book.

Respectfully,

EDWARD A. JONES.

ALL MAKES OF MACHINES SOLD, RENTED AND REPAIRED.

Oh, say have you seen the WHITE Machine,
The best of "Light Runners" and fit for a queen?

Most perfect in needle-bar shuttle and wheel,
With its bearings all made of the finest of steel.

Its attachments are simple, its woodwork well made,
And its strength like its finish, the best in the trade.

It leads where none follow; it always has led,
Without peer, without rival, it stands at the head.
